9. Criminal Convictions

Do you have any unspent* criminal convictions?

Yes☐

No☐

* If you are applying for a course in health, social work, sport, childcare, or involving work with children or vulnerable adults, then a satisfactory Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service Report will be required. Previous criminal convictions may affect your ability to attend work placements and complete your programme.
If you declare that you have a conviction, you will be asked to complete a separate information sheet. This is to help us assess any potential risk to yourself or others in the College. Having a criminal record will not necessarily prevent you from studying at College but that will depend on the programme you choose and the circumstances and background of the offence. If you do not disclose a relevant conviction, which is ultimately discovered, this could result in you being excluded from the College.

10. Data Protection Statement

Loughborough College collects data about all learners for various administrative, academic, health and safety, contractual and other public interest reasons. Your data is shared only with those agencies specifically involved with funding or accrediting your qualification, concerned with collection of fees, promoting student welfare or with ensuring your wellbeing and vital interests or as otherwise required by law. Since we cannot operate the College effectively without processing information about you, we need you to sign the Student Application Form below. If you do not agree to the above, we will be unable to contact you to discuss your preferred programme of study; will be unable to enrol you on a programme, and may withdraw any offers already made. Loughborough College will only share your information where legally allowed or required in line with current Data Protection legislation. For circumstances outside of this legislation, we will seek your written consent before sharing your information.
