

TEAM MANAGER

A Team Manager will look after all aspects of how an esports company or team operates. This includes hiring staff, deciding which games and tournaments to take part in, the company ethos and direction, branding, marketing and business strategy, paying wages, handling accounts, partnerships and more.

SKILLS NEEDED

- Organisation
- Problem Solving
- Communication
- Creativity
- Focused
- Knowledgeable
- Entrepreneurial

HOURS

If you are running an organisation, it could become your life. Look at the likes of Fnatic's Sam Mathews and Michael O'Dell – these guys live and breathe their UK-based brands, they are working on them all the time and obviously enjoy it.

SALARY

If you make a truly globally successful team, you could sell it on to a bigger buyer for possibly millions, or keep it going and generate a regular revenue stream.